Press Release – International Nurses Day

Today we celebrate nurses worldwide.

We give thanks for their professionalism, their dedication, their resilience, their humanity, their compassion.

We praise their strong will, this spirit that makes them go on with their duty without second thought, no matter how forbidding the circumstances, no matter how little the means, no matter how long their own personal life is left behind.

ENC renews our will to promote Nursing excellence, patients' rights, public health and safety, and better healthcare 365 days per year

Mircea Timofte
President of ENC
